1. Tipperary Heritage Plan Consultation Process

Tipperary County Council is developing its second all county Heritage Plan.

The plan will be framed within the context of national heritage policy as set out in the Heritage Act 1995 & Heritage Act 2018, Heritage Ireland 2030, Culture 2025, and the Habitats Directive (Council Directive 92/43/EEC).

The contribution of all interested parties is being sought in order to fully inform the preparation of the Heritage Plan. This will assist Tipperary County Council in planning and delivering heritage actions in the county for the period of the plan.

Survey

Interested parties and members of the public are invited to have their say by completing a short questionnaire which can be accessed by visiting this link: https://consultations.tipperarycoco.ie/form/heritage-pre-draft-consultation

This questionnaire will be available from Wednesday 17th May 2023 to Monday 19th June 2023.

3. Join the conversation on Traditional Irish Homes

The Department of Housing, Local Government & Heritage are looking for owners who might be interested in joining the conversation on traditional Irish homes. There is link on their website here: https://www.buildingsofireland.ie/join-the-conversation-on-traditional-irish-homes/

And also a tweet here: https://twitter.com/NIAH_Ireland

JOIN THE CONVERSATION ON TRADITIONAL IRISH HOMES

Are you the owner of a traditional house? Are you considering becoming the owner of an historic, traditional home?

The Department of Housing, Local Government and Heritage and the National Inventory of Architectural Heritage would love to get your thoughts on the pros and cons of owning a traditional house. Your feedback will be invaluable in helping to shape future policy and secure funding for these buildings which form such an important part of our built heritage and landscape.

An independent research team working on our behalf are running a series of 90 minute online focus groups. We would be delighted to hear your views and share your experience. If you would like to get involved, get in touch! Your feedback is very important to us.

Please contact Catriona O'Flaherty by email at Catriona.OFlaherty@housing.gov.ie or by phone on 01 5393651.
